Whānau Debts - (presently $66K)

We have been following a process of contacting whānau who have outstanding debts that are concern to :

- 1. request payment towards outstandings
- 2. establishment of automatic payments
- 3. or adjusting the amount received by kura to more realistic amount

We have had some positive results from many whānau and then no result from a few.

We have set up an client account with Baycorp - who, in need will assist us with recovery of longstanding debts. We intend to use their services from 1st November 2018.

Please make contact with the tari in person, by phone, email, or text - if we can assist you in any way or provide an updated statement.
